

Culminating Activity

Directions: Answer the questions again. Think back to the lesson. After you finish, compare your answers on this sheet to the Introductory Activity Sheet. Count the correct answers and fill in the blanks. Then rank your score, before and after the lesson.

- What month does hurricane season begin? _____
- What month does hurricane season end? _____
- How much water per person do you need? _____
- Which is worse, a watch or a warning? _____
- When should you prepare your family disaster kit? _____
- Where can you find weather information? _____
- Is putting gas in your car important? _____
- Where should your pets be to be safe? _____
- What do you do with the garbage cans? _____
- How many days of supplies should you have? _____
- Should you go outside when the storm suddenly gets calm? _____
- Where in your house are you the safest? _____
- Which is more dangerous, strong winds or flooding waters? _____
- How many parts are in a hurricane? _____
- How will you know it is safe to go outside/ _____
- If it starts to flood, what should you do? _____

On the Introductory Activity I knew ____ answers.

On the Culminating Activity I knew ____ answers.

My total increased by ____.

Am I Prepared for a Countdown to Disaster?

If your score increased 16 – 20, you are a Disaster General and you're prepared.

If your score increased 10-15, you are a Disaster Major and should get prepared.

If your score increased 5-9, you are a Disaster Private and your safety is in danger.

If your score increased 0-4, you are a potential Disaster Victim. Get prepared!

My score makes me a _____.