

SHEILA AND LARRY HANEY
Hartsville, SC

Sheila (originally from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio) and her husband Larry reside in Hartsville, South Carolina. They have traveled to every continent excluding the Antarctic. Sheila says that ETV represents, “a thread throughout my life unraveling across the globe”. They are both very much involved in church and civic activities and Sheila enjoys cooking and yard work.

As they rise in the morning or travel, Sheila chooses selects programs so that they “enjoy the subsequent stimulating discussions that follow.” ETV fits into their lives “like other habits for well being. The radio and to a lesser degree, the TV are a presence in every room, as well as in our vehicles and even our boat.” Radio Reader was Sheila’s first introduction to what is now the classical station, but she is “devoted to much more throughout the day and evening on ETV Radio”. ETV has been a positive and provocative influence on her life, providing a “background for living abundantly with standards and respect.”

Sheila decided to include the ETV Endowment in her estate among other institutions because “it has become who I am.” She encourages other Endowment members to consider a legacy gift.
