Programming: Women Vision:

Assignment: Watch the broadcast and complete the activities below.

Activities:

- Pick a leader that inspired you from the broadcast. Draw a picture or cut out pictures from magazines that represent her life.
- Pretend you are one of the female leaders and write or record yourself saying a speech that revolves around her beliefs and her contributions to society.
- Be a leader! Find something you are passionate about and either write down or record yourself saying a speech that reflects your interests and goals.
- Who are some leaders in your life? Write down who they are and what qualities they have that make them leaders.

Discussion Questions:

- Who was your favorite leader mentioned during the broadcast? What is one thing you learned from her? What is one thing you would like to know about her?
- What does it mean to lead?
- Do you believe that leaders must also be followers? Explain why or why not.
