

A topographical Description and
A Measurement of the YLAND of BARBADOS in the West INDIAES with the Names of the several plantations

BEYOND BARBADOS

The Carolina Connection

EDUCATOR RESOURCES & WORKSHOPS

Grant funding for this project will support the creation of six lessons plans, one for each chapter in the documentary. Lesson plans will be housed in ETV's LearningWhy and KnowItAll platforms.

Additionally, SCETV will work with partners to host educator workshops (to include a viewing of the documentary) across the state during Fall 2019.

1

BARBADIAN SOUL FOOD SEMINARS

Charles Towne Landing

August 2019

Barbadian Emancipation Day & Crop Over

Featuring a Lunch/Cooking Demo in partnership with Trident Tech Culinary Program and/or K12 Career Centers

- Cash Crop Creativity: Agriculture and South Carolina's Culinary Trademarks
Explore the impact of agriculture on SC's culinary trends, trademarks, and hospitality industry.
- Convening Carolina Style: Southern Hospitality and Food Culture
Use components of documentary to discuss the role of food in southern hospitality.
- Remembering, Retaining, and Remixing
Review teaching resources that address the socio-historical legacies of Barbados in SC food culture.

2

SONGVERSATION IN STUDIO: BARBADIAN MUSIC

Clafin University

August 2019

Barbadian Emancipation Day & Crop Over

Featuring a musical performance that includes a Tuk Band (i.e. Barbadian musical ensemble)

- The Power of Percussion: Sonic Literacies & Barbadian Instrumentation
Explore the percussive sounds of Barbadian music and introduce interpretative frameworks for engaging in the art form.
- Crop Over/Carnival: Performing & Celebrating Culture
Discuss the connections between music and dance in Barbados and South Carolina.
- It's a Vibe: Celebrating Musical & Human Harmony
Explore strategies for using music as a teaching tool and as classroom climate control.

3

BARBADIAN TEACH IN

Lander University & Denmark Technical College

NOVEMBER 2019

BARBADOS INDEPENDENCE MONTH & AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

This is the only workshop where educators are expected to view the documentary prior to the session.

- Incorporating Arts into the Basic Curriculum
Discuss strategies for integrating arts into core curricula areas depending on the grade level and subject matter.
- Paired Curriculum Development
Work with a teaching mentor to create lesson plans using the Barbados documentary.

This is a draft for planning purposes.
Direct questions to Dr. Stephanie Frazier
VP Education, SCETV
803.737.3528 / sfrazier@scetv.org