South Carolina ETV wins 21 Telly awards
Shows and programs take gold, silver and bronze recognition in various categories

COLUMBIA, S.C. – South Carolina ETV (SCETV) received a total of 21 Telly awards this season. The Telly Awards annually showcase the best work created within television and across video for all screens. Receiving more than 12,000 entries from all 50 states and five continents, Telly Award winners represent work from some of the most respected advertising agencies, television stations, production companies and publishers from around the world.

SCETV was honored with two gold, eight silver and eleven bronze trophies.

Three of SCETV’s nationally distributed programs also claimed Telly awards this season. Our Vanishing Americana, a documentary that captures the essence of South Carolina community icons and historic businesses, won a Gold award, four Silver awards and a Bronze award in various television and documentary categories including editing, videography, directing and history. By The River, in its first season of national distribution, received two Silver awards for Television Series in the Cultural and Education & Discovery categories. How She Rolls, a half-hour, lifestyle documentary and culinary series, won three bronze awards.

In addition, SCETV’s digital series From the Sky won two awards, including a Gold award for the series in the Television – Aerial Cinematography category. The Gun Reform episode of Palmetto Perspectives and promotion for the South of Spooky podcast both received Silver awards in the Television and Video categories, respectively.
