

For immediate release:
December 5, 2023

Local bookstore unveils Book Nook dedicated to Walter Edgar's Journal Event included live podcast recording and special meet-and-greet with Dr. Walter Edgar COLUMBIA, S.C. –SC Public Radio, in partnership with All Good Books, celebrated the unveiling of the new Walter Edgar's Journal Book Nook at All Good Books in Columbia on Nov. 14. This special event brought the stories and discussions from the Walter Edgar's Journal podcast to life in a dedicated section within the bookstore.

A special live recording of the Walter Edgar's Journal podcast was held for members of the ETV Endowment, followed by a public unveiling of the Book Nook. Members of the public were invited to explore the Book Nook following the live recording and engage with podcast hosts Dr. Walter Edgar and Alfred Turner, as well as Christina Rae Butler, author of Charleston Horse Power: Equine Culture in the Palmetto City. The meet-and-greet offered a unique opportunity to engage in discussions, ask questions and have books signed by the hosts and author.

The Walter Edgar's Journal Book Nook features a curated selection of books that have been discussed on the podcast produced by SC Public Radio. Visitors now have the opportunity to explore these literary treasures and immerse themselves in the world of Walter Edgar's Journal.

Walter Edgar's Journal covers a wide range of topics, delving into the arts, culture and history of South Carolina and the American South. The new Book Nook at All Good Books allows fans of the podcast to dive deeper into the subjects that have piqued their interest.

For more information on Walter Edgar's Journal, please visit the SC Public Radio website.

QUOTES

"We are delighted to bring the rich content of Walter Edgar's Journal to a dedicated space where fans can explore the books that have been featured on the podcast. This event is a testament to the power of storytelling in both podcast and print forms. We're excited to see the Walter Edgar's Journal Book Nook come to life." –SCETV President and CEO Adrienne Fairwell

"I'm thrilled to see the world of Walter Edgar's Journal expand into a physical space where our listeners can connect with the books and ideas we discuss on the podcast. This Book Nook is a fantastic way to celebrate the written word and the love of storytelling." –Walter Edgar's Journal host Dr. Walter Edgar

FAST FACTS

- SC Public Radio, in partnership, with All Good Books unveiled the Walter Edgar's Journal Book Nook at All Good Books in Columbia.
- The event featured a special live podcast recording for ETV Endowment members followed by an unveiling of the Walter Edgar's Journal Book Nook.
- The Walter Edgar's Journal Book Nook features a curated selection of books that have been discussed on the podcast.
- Attendees had the opportunity to meet the podcast hosts Dr. Walter Edgar and Alfred Turner, as well as Christina Rae Butler, author of Charleston Horse Power: Equine Culture in the Palmetto City.

- For more information on Walter Edgar's Journal, please visit the SC Public Radio website.

About South Carolina ETV and Public Radio

South Carolina ETV and Public Radio (SCETV) is the state's public educational broadcasting network. SCETV amplifies South Carolina voices, provides educational experiences and strengthens communities, while working toward creating a stronger, more connected and informed South Carolina. In addition to airing local programs, such as Carolina Classrooms, Making It Grow, and This Week in South Carolina, SCETV also presents multiple programs to regional and national audiences, including By The River, After Action, Reconnecting Roots, Reel South, Somewhere South, Yoga in Practice and How She Rolls. In addition, SC Public Radio produces the national radio production, Chamber Music from Spoleto Festival USA.

Media Contact:

Landon Masters
media@scetv.org
803-737-3337